

Academy Players Code of Conduct

Everyone involved in the Boroughmuir Rugby Academy whether a player, Academy volunteer, coach, official, Club member or parent is expected to uphold Scottish Rugby's core values:

Leadership : Engagement : Achievement : Enjoyment : Respect

To this end, the following Code of Conduct is in place at the club for players:

- All players will uphold Scottish Rugby's rules of competition and play.
- All players will respect coaches, opponents, officials, parents and teammates.
- No player will swear or be rude towards anyone else.
- All players will work hard for themselves and their team.
- All players will play the sport for their enjoyment, not just to please parents or coaches.
- No player shall argue with officials.
- Every player will do their best to listen and learn from their coaches.
- All players will do their very best when playing for Boroughmuir.
- All players must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexual identity.
- All players will complete registration to Boroughmuir Rugby Academy and Scottish Rugby SCRUMS and pay appropriate membership fees.
